

Abstract – Paul Benhaim:

"Bringing the industry into a global arena."

How the idea of hemp foods in the UK turned into a public company with CBD and Food operations in Europe, America, Australia and Asia.

The business of cannabis hemp has been a 25 year journey for English born Paul Benhaim. Fuelled from the science of nutrition and inspired to make changes in our world this has led to one of the largest hemp food and nutraceutical group of companies in the world. Learn about what this looks like today. Elixinol Global Ltd (ASX:EXL) is a Tier 1 supported Public Company with the highest revenues of all listed companies in Australia, where Mr Benhaim is now based. Australian legislation updates will be shared. Hemp Foods Australia is a wholly owned part of this new group with operations in North America and Australasia and now looking to explore strategic partnerships with Elixinol and Hemp Foods within Europe.
