

Abstract:

Hemp has a long history in China, which was used as textile. Currently, industry hemp has the largest planting area as a kind of bast crop in China , planted mainly in Heilongjiang, Yunnan, Anhui, Shandong. Under the influence of product development and market propaganda, hemp industry has been developed fast. The hemp textile products are mainly sold in the domestic market. This presentation will talk about the status of hemp textile market and application in China.