

CBD & medical Cannabis - current situation in Germany

The presentation gives an overview of the current status of CBD and the legal obstacles food business operators face as well as an update on the medicinal cannabis program in Germany.

Included are current data on patients and current figures of the health insurance companies, as well as the current problems like

- legal uncertainties
- regulatory challenges in different states
- legal challenges in regards to irradiated cannabis flowers
- lack of supply

are presented.